OBJECTS OF THE CONSPIRACY

It was one of the objects of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would arrange for, plan and import multiple kilogram quantities of cocaine and heroin into the United States, particularly Puerto Rico, for the purpose of distributing cocaine and heroin in Puerto Rico and cocaine in New York.

It was also one of the objects of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would derive substantial income from the sale of large quantities of cocaine, heroin and marijuana.

MANNER AND MEANS USED TO FURTHER THE OBJECTS OF THE CONSPIRACY

The following were among the means used by the defendants and their co-conspirators to carry out the objects of the conspiracy and to ensure the success of their criminal organization (also referred to as the "CANIGUA ORGANIZATION"):

1. It was part of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators arranged for multi-kilogram quantities of cocaine and heroin to be transported from the Dominican Republic to Puerto Rico and for cocaine to be transported from Puerto Rico to New York.
2. It was part of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would distribute cocaine, heroin and marijuana in the District of Puerto Rico, frequently on consignment.
3. It was a further part of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would keep each other apprised of their drug trafficking activities, including plans for distribution of drugs and also share information concerning current drug prices for distribution in Puerto Rico.

U.S.A. v. Carlos Gutiérrez Naranjo, et al.

4. It was a further part of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would use pagers and cellular telephones to communicate with each other for the purpose of facilitating their drug trafficking.

5. It was a further part of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would use veiled or coded references in their telephone and other conversations to describe their drug trafficking transactions.

6. It was a further part of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would use aliases and other means to avoid detection by law enforcement authorities, including the use of counter-surveillance techniques.

7. It was a further part of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would at various times during the conspiracy play different roles, perform different functions and take upon themselves different tasks in furtherance of the "CANIGUA ORGANIZATION's" drug trafficking activities.

8. It was a further part of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would possess firearms including assault rifles to protect their drug trafficking activities from rival organizations.

18. On April 15, 1997, FEDERICO NARANJO ROSA, a.k.a. "Papo," calls GABRIEL MORALES MADERA, a.k.a. "Jan," and tells "Jan" to settle with the old man at the liquor store for fifteen thousand ($15,000) dollars per kilogram.

"eighteen (18) pesitos" to send him right now but that he needs "Tío" to give him the correct list of names so that "Papo" can send the money. "Tío" tells "Papo" that it is better if "Papo's" nephew calls "Tío" in order to verify the names that the nephew has.

21. On April 16, 1997, JOSE MONTANEZ ROSADO, a.k.a. "Che," calls FEDERICO NARANJO ROSA, a.k.a. "Papo," who advises "Che" that "Tío" called and they have to send the money over there. "Papo" tells "Che" that there should be "nineteen (19)," but that "Che" should verify if there is more.

"Papo," from Colombia and they discuss the possibility of doing business together in the Dominican Republic. "Papo" agrees and "Tío" says that "Papo" will need to be there. "Papo" also informs "Tío" that he will send "Tío" more proceeds from drug trafficking. "Papo" tells "Tío" that he will send him the "invitations" (checks or money orders) tomorrow. "Papo" says that he will call his nephew tomorrow because there may be "five or six more invitations".

26. On April 26, 1997, FEDERICO NARANJO ROSA, a.k.a. "Papo," calls FABIAN CLAUDIO NARANJO, a.k.a. "Fanny," and tells "Fanny" to call "Tío" because the last name (in the "invitation") is wrong.

27. On April 17, 1997, MIGUEL IZAGAS CRUZ, a.k.a. "Chuco," calls FEDERICO NARANJO ROSA, a.k.a. "Papo," and asks "Papo" if "Papo's" nephew has heroin ("cars" and "girls") available. "Chuco" asks if "Papo" has spoken to his nephew (CARLOS GUTIERREZ NARANJO, a.k.a. "Canigua") and if the nephew is "painting" today. "Papo" says that he was just with him and that he "did not paint the car." "Chuco" also asks if "Papo" has "girls." "Papo" says that they were all contracted by the Black Angus, but two are still available at the Lucky 7.

28. On April 19, 1997, MIGUEL IZAGAS CRUZ, a.k.a. "Chuco," calls FEDERICO NARANJO ROSA, a.k.a. "Papo," and purchases one hundred and twenty-five (125) grams ("one girl") of heroin from "Papo." "Papo" then asks "Chuco" if "Papo" should bring him a whole one, a big one or a small one ("¿te llevo una entera? ¿O en grande, la grande? ¿Te llevo una grande o te llevo una chiquita?"). "Chuco" answers "one hundred twenty five (125)." "Papo" will bring him a big one ("la grande").

30. On April 19, 1997, MIGUEL IZAGAS CRUZ, a.k.a. "Chuco," calls FEDERICO NARANJO ROSA, a.k.a. "Papo," to renegotiate the price for the heroin (the "two girls") that he is buying in order to buy more. "Chuco" asks "Papo" to adjust the price so he ("Chuco") can take "four girls." "Papo" tells "Chuco" that he will see what he can do.

31. On April 20, 1997, MIGUEL IZAGAS CRUZ, a.k.a. "Chuco," calls FEDERICO NARANJO ROSA, a.k.a. "Papo," who tells "Chuco" that the price is nine thousand ($9,000) dollars for one hundred and twenty five (125) grams of heroin. "Papo" tells "Chuco" that he has the "girl" and that "she" is going to charge "Chuco" only "ninety (90) dollars" for "125 hours." "Chuco" asks what "Papo" means by "ninety (90) dollars." "Papo" says nine per hour for 125, that she wants ... "nine thousand" ("pues los nueve. ¿No es nueve por hora? Por los 125...era 125, ¿verdad? Pues ella lo que quiere pues son nueve ... nueve pesos por hora. Nueve mil").

32. On April 20, 1997, FEDERICO NARANJO ROSA, a.k.a. "Papo," calls RUBEN SALAZAR GONZALEZ a.k.a. "Vejillo," who asks "Papo" if "Papo" is going to take him ("Vejillo") the drugs ("the complete car.")

33. On April 24, 1997, CARLOS GUTIERREZ NARANJO, a.k.a. "Canigua," calls FEDERICO NARANJO ROSA, a.k.a. "Papo," and tells "Papo" that all the "NARANJOs" have to be careful and "Papo" must have that "chambered and ready" ("chamboneao y tó").

"Vejillo" responds that the guy obtained it for less. "Papo" tells "Vejillo" to bring it to "Papo" and "Papo" will take it somewhere else.

35. On April 28, 1997, CARLOS GUTIERREZ NARANJO, a.k.a. "Canigua," calls FEDERICO NARANJO ROSA, a.k.a. "Papo," and they discuss a drug debt of two hundred and eighty thousand ($280,000) dollars ("two hundred and eighty pesos") owed to CARLOS GUTIERREZ by one of his customers. "Papo" tells "CARLOS GUTIERREZ" that the guy will make a payment of "forty five (45) pesos" to "Jan."

36. On April 29, 1997, JOHN DOE 2, "a.k.a. Máximo," not charged herein, calls FEDERICO NARANJO ROSA, a.k.a "Papo," and tells "Papo" that the guy called him and told him that they had heroin ("five tires") and they are giving them at "one hundred (100) and something."

37. On April 29, 1997, FEDERICO NARANJO ROSA, a.k.a "Papo," calls GABRIEL MORALES MADERA, a.k.a. "Jan," and tells "Jan" that "Felix's" brother called him and said that he had "five wide white wall tires for the Corvette."

40. On April 30, 1997, FEDERICO NARANJO ROSA, a.k.a "Papo," calls JOHN DOE 2, a.k.a. "Máximo," not charged herein, in the Dominican Republic to discuss the purchase of heroin ("tires"). "Máximo" tells "Papo" that there are only "four and a half (4 1/2) tires left." "Papo" tells "Máximo" that they will buy the "four (4) whole tires" at "sixty three (63) pesos" each.

41. On April 30, 1997, LUIS PEREZ MALDONADO, a.k.a. "IA," calls FEDERICO NARANJO ROSA, a.k.a "Papo," and tells "Papo" to have different people buy the airline tickets separately so that they cannot be tracked by the authorities.

42. On May 1, 1997, JOHN DOE 2, a.k.a., "Máximo," not charged herein, calls FEDERICO NARANJO ROSA, a.k.a. "Papo," who tells "Máximo" that they are returning the heroin ("three candies").
